QUARTERLY LISTING OF ISSUES AND PROGRAMS

SECOND QUARTER, 2023

APRIL - JUNE

WTXF-FOX 29
Philadelphia, PA

Summary of Major Issues Treated During the Quarter:

Business/Economy/Consumer – “Cashing In” is a series of regular segments providing consumer information and financial advice from financial expert Dan Roccato.

Business/Economy/Consumer – “Ya Gotta Try This” is a series of regular segments profiling area restaurants and eateries serving unique fare.

Education – “Kelly’s Classroom” is a regular segment in which Good Day Philadelphia Traffic Reporter Bob Kelly visits local schools to highlight unique programs and activities.

Health & Medical – “Health Watch” is a regular segment in which FOX 29 Medical Reporter Dr. Mike Cirigliano discusses medical issues and topics.

Public Health/Safety/Welfare – SOS: Save Our Streets is a station-wide initiative incorporating long and short-form programming and reports, public service announcements and social media/web resources addressing the historic increase in gun violence and tragic loss of life in Philadelphia and the surrounding area. As FOX 29 staff members who work and live in these impacted communities, we have a greater responsibility to assist in trying to make things better. The SOS initiative serves as an opportunity to engage and collaborate with community stakeholders, residents, ex-offenders and anyone trying to Save Our Streets. The stories and specials go deeper than just reporting the facts, and explore the causes and potential solutions and allow for people most affected to have a voice.

Title: Save Our Streets: Make It Make Sense

Issue: Crime

Description of program:

FOX 29 dives deeper into the path of its Save Our Street specials, exploring unsolved crimes, the impacts of faith on the younger generations and the role media plays in making communities better. FOX 29's Save Our Streets initiative gives our journalists an opportunity to go deeper than just reporting the facts on gun violence and explore causes and potential solutions - all while allowing those most affected by the violence to have a voice.

Title: The 215

Issue: Culture

Description of program: FOX 29 "Good Day Philadelphia" co-host Mike Jerrick and sports anchor Breland Moore host "The 215" each week. "The 215" showcases the people, places, and things that make the Philadelphia area truly unique.

This week we host from the Wharton Esherick Museum and speak with the Director of Interpretation, Holly Gore. Adebunmi Gbadebo started collecting hair from barbershops, and hair sent from around the world, to incorporate into her sculptures as a way to bring history into her work. People are noticing Myrtle Williams' work, which pays tribute to women of the past, present and future, but the local sculptor says she isn't selling! Mark Loughney is a former inmate who has drawn over 800 portraits of people he met while incarcerated for a portrait project called "Pyrrhic Defeat." When COVID affected her face painting job, Tee Taylor went back to her love of painting to pay the bills, and now it brings her pure happiness.
